WOODLAND ENDS INCREDIBLE SEASON

The Woodlan Warriors travelled to Whiting, Indiana, a suburb of Chicago, after defeating Winchester in the Regional Championship. Could the Warriors prove their mettle in this Semi-State Football match? It was the year of the “W” if you have noticed the last few games in the tournament: Woodlan, Whiting, Whitko, and Winchester. All of the teams have done very well.

Dark, bitterly cold, windy, and a layer of snow and ice defined the evening conditions facing both teams at this IHSSAA Semi-State match. Arrival at the field with 45 minutes till the game began and the field not cleared off, surprised the Warriors. The Oilers began cleaning off small sections of the field starting with the field marker lines. Only about 1/2 field was cleared when the game began. There were very few seats for the fans to sit and enjoy the football game.

AMAZON WEB SERVICES ANNOUNCES ALEXANDRA WIND FARM IN PAULDING COUNTY

Amazon Web Services, Inc. (AWS), an Amazon.com company (NASDAQ AMZN), announced that it has contracted with EDP Renewables to construct and operate a 100 megawatt (MW) wind farm in Paulding County, Ohio, called the Amazon Wind Farm US Central. This new wind farm is expected to start generating approximately 200,000 megawatt hours (MWh) of wind energy annually starting in May 2017, or enough to power more than 29,000 US homes[1] in a year. The energy generated will be delivered into the electrical grid that supplies both current and future AWS Cloud data centers. For more information go to http://aws.amazon.com/about-aws/sustainable-energy/. In November 2014, AWS shared its long-term commitment to achieve 100 percent renewable energy usage for the global AWS infrastructure footprint. In April 2015, AWS announced that approximately 25 percent of the power used by the global infrastructure was from renewable energy sources.

Today, one in 68 children is diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder (ASD). Just a few years ago, that number was one in 1,500. The numbers have steadily increased over the last decade, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. With more children being identified as having ASD, it’s free for all Ohioans! The Power of One program is online, you can join at your own pace. Because the program’s mission is to give support and hope to families, and to increase the number of trained service providers and increase the quality of life for both individuals and families. The Ohio Department of Aging is proud to partner with the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities to promote ASD Strategies in Action, a groundbreaking on-line video training program for anyone who interacts with people with ASD. The department’s goal is to bring awareness of those with ASD to the parents, grandparents, parents, fellow caregivers for their grandchildren, and the community. Elders play with and mentor their grandchildren, they support the parents and provide care for their grandchildren, often as they do for the child’s primary caregiver. There may be times that the elders become the primary caregiver, and other family members, do not know how to best support their loved ones. The Power of One program can help with that. ASD Strategies in Action is a way for grandparents to train their grandchildren. Elders play a vital role as they support their grandchildren with ASD and continue to support their families. The introductory session of the online video training program, called “The Journey: ASD Strategies in Action,” will take about 10 minutes. It will cover the basics of what ASD is, and what it looks like in children and adults. There are 12 sessions in total, and the remaining 11 are scheduled before the end of the year. So if you have met your deductible for this year and are in need of medical care related to your ASD needs, the Power of One program can help you meet those needs. Deductible under most medical insurance plans will reset to the full amount beginning in January. So you have not met your deductible for this year and are able to cover the other medical procedures or tests before the end of the year, your out of pocket expenses may be minimal or even zero. So be smart and contact your doctor today or call Paulding County Hospital and schedule before the end of the year. The Power of One program can help you meet your needs.

PAULDING UNITED METHODIST CHURCH PRESENTS EVERYBODY’S CHRISTMAS

Can’t think of what to get someone this Christmas? Why not give them something to remember?

Paulding United Methodist Church is hosting an event on Sunday, November 24, at 1:00 p.m. The event is free and children are invited to come just for children and not a program just for adults. It’s a family-friendly event. Come, have fun, have lots of fun, and create some Christmas memories that will last a lifetime.

The event begins at 1:00 p.m. and concludes at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are $25 per person or $45 per family of 4. Special family rates are available. For more information, you can contact the church at pauldingumc@windstream.net or by phone at 419-399-3391.

EFFORT OF PRAYER EXPLORED AT LIFETREE CAFÉ

The effectiveness of prayer will be explored at West Bend’s Lifetree Café on Thursday, November 28, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Visitors are invited to come to hear a message from Pastor Gerry Weesner on this topic.

Thanksgiving Observance at Antwerp

One night, when everyone was eating their Christmas turkeys, the Pilgrims had few, they made it a point to slow down and take time to enjoy the holiday with your loved ones. I hope you will be able to reflect on the blessings in your life, and give thanks for the things that mean the most to you. Most importantly, I hope you have a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving!

There are two basic services the agency provides:

2. Claims Assistance – Provide services for veterans and other claimants for VA benefits, including the preparation and submission of claims.

We also provide information and assistance for other benefits, such as Social Security and state and local benefits. Please contact us for more information.
6.4 million Vietnam veterans

U.S. Census Bureau, in 2014, estimated that 11,201,000 veterans were living in the United States. As each year passes, veterans grow older and have seen some horrible things. Some of these men and women are World War II veterans who die daily. Approximately 640 World War II veterans die daily.

We don't have to know these people personally to appreciate what they've sacrificed and endured. In fact, many times people and organizations can show our appreciation. Fortunately, a non-profit organization called the Honor Flight Network offers free flights to service people to honor these service people.

The Honor Flight Network provides free flights to service men and women a flight to Washington D.C. to visit memorials and see some horrible events. They survived but their time now is limited as well.

For those who wish to treat a veteran to a special trip, this honor flight provides an application that must be filled out for consideration.

Special priority goes to World War II veterans who are terminally ill. Even if you can’t help out financially, you can still be making an appearance at the homecoming of one of these few remaining individuals.

Those people deserve our gratitude and appreciation to these service men and women. Check out the website to see what flights are taking place near you.

On one occasion, I attended the homecoming of one of these flights last year at the Fort Wayne International Airport. The support, honor, and appreciation were overwhelming. When the service people entered the airport, they were not expecting to receive such a warm welcome. The entire entryway and waiting area of the airport was packed with people saying hello, and voice their appreciation. Flags, family members, strangers, and even a band stood waiting to cheer them on. The raw emotion, surprise, and humble appreciation on the service people’s faces were more rewarding than anything I’ve ever seen.

Time simply dampens the memories of the service people, but that doesn’t matter. What matters is that we take time to remember and I can say it’s one of the best feelings I've had to date. Thank you for all that you have done.

MAYFLOWER SOCIETY TO HOST LUNCHEON FOR COMPACT DAY LUNCHEON

The Mayflower Society (Toldeo Colony) met for the Compact Day luncheon on October 4th at 11:30 a.m. at Swan Creek Retreat Village in Toledo, Ohio.

The meeting was opened by Luit. Governor Susan Melhorn, who briefly gave the Alliance to the flag of the United State of America. The Mayflower Compact was read by all of those present in commemoration of that signing and the landing of the Pilgrim ship in 1620 at Plymouth.

Thanksgiving meal was served after grace was given for the meal. A Maple Ship cookie was served with traditional pumpkin pie.

Woodland Girls Stumble to Leo

The Lady Warriors hosted the Lady Lions at the basketball game last Friday, November 20. The first half of the game was close and even finished with only one point difference. They did a great job! Ellie Kayser was a standout 20. The first part of the night was when fans could purchase shirts and have the teams and players autograph the articles. While the signing was going on, the girls basketball team was scrimmaging against itself for a half hour. Following this, the boys teams played against each other. The evening started with a presentation of the sports teams and thanked for making this possible with a presentation by coach TJ Hammer. More pictures at westbendnews.net.

ASK ME ABOUT...

NEW HAVEN

Things I wish I understood at 12: A letter to my little self.

Dear Miss C,

You may not realize it today, but you are beautiful. You may have told a self-critical story told you (thinking you were your bff, when in actuality you are a dog face) that being hurtful and something you will hide from everyone. You are so unapologetic about this, I know that will keep you from feeling pretty for years to follow. I also know that you feel like there must be something wrong with you. Your crush doesn’t like you and you feel like no boy ever will. You feel you will forever be the outsider, but pray real hard for the morning you wake up and realize how ‘ugly duckling’ syndrome will just go away. Then you will suddenly like the girls in the movies you love to watch. Girls who start out being misunderstood but then eventually sees your inner beauty and inward true beauty. Life is hard and school is hard. It is not always the most popular. You are alone, your heart is easily hurt because you are sensitive. That in the real world is not always the case. One day that caring nature will help others, and you can make the world a better place. There is nothing more beautiful. Oh and when you are older you will be friends with this guy, and he will feel terrible when you confront him about it… he doesn’t even remember. In 6th grade you will get a letter from your best friend. The letter will tell you she no longer wants to be your friend. She tells you that she doesn’t want to spend time with you anymore, because she wants to be popular and does not believe that can happen with you as her friend. Little C, this letter has no relation to you, but this girl has a lot of real problems in her life. She is going to go through a lot of hardships. She needs love and support. Yes she hurt you, but instead of focusing on that hurt, take some time to pray for her. Her actions are not a reflection of who you are, and you will find friends who love you just as you are.

Little C, everything is changing. Schools, hormones, friends, everything… Sometimes it feels like you are under a microscope. Most of the time though, everyone is too busy worrying about their own problems to worry about yours. Everyone is trying so hard to fit in. Everyone thinks there is only room for a certain number of people in. ‘This’ delusion creates mean girls. You know who they are. They are the girls who will never be nice to your face, but say mean things behind your back. They are the girls who judge everyone else, they may even pick on others. Those are not because of who you are, but because they are not comfortable with who THEY are. In the real world there is no limit to who can be included. So much drama. You must tell yourself you can just stop. Don’t talk about your friends, talk to them. They will understand. Don’t worry about what everyone thinks about you. You just be you… because I said like in the beginning of this letter. You are beautiful. You must not be able to stop others from being mean, but you CAN control how you handle yourself. So instead of worrying what everyone else is thinking about you, worry about your own. Love yourself. Everyone will love you around your heart and be the best person you can be. That is beautiful.

Blessings,

Joe Barker, Local Farmer and Business Owner

WOODLAND SMASHES PRAIRIE RIGGS

By: Jeff Abbott

Woodland got an early advantage and then held on to their slim lead in the first half as the Warriors beat Prairie Riggs 53-29 in girls basketball. Woodland and the Panthers were tied at 10-10 at the half as the Woodland Panthers went cold and the defense couldn’t stop the inside play of Hinton. Rain Hinton had 17 points for Woodland with Samantha Woodard 10. Prairie Riggs won the game 37-23, Branna Cardon had 7 points for Woodland.

STORMIN’ NORMAN RE-MEMBERED

Norm Dale Ellenberger, age 83, died exactly where he wanted to be in his home in Waternest, MI, November 15, 2015.

He was lovingly raised by his parents Dale and Mildred Ellenberger and grandparents Collette and Isabell Isabell of Bluffton, Indiana. He graduated from New Haven, Indiana high school where he solidified his passion for competition in sports. Norman was recruited to play football from the area.

During his tenure at Butler he was team captain and all conference on Butler's football team and a two year varsity letter winner. Norman was mentored by Hall of Fame Coach Doy O. "Tony" Hinkle on the Butler Bulldogs' basketball squad, becoming two sport story at Butler.

Norm pitched one of five no hitters in Butler baseball his senior year at Waternest College Basketball Most Outstanding Player in 1954. He was also a two time all conference player for baseball, a knuckle ball specialist.

Norm was inducted into the Butler Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012. During his last years he enjoyed living in the town of West Bend and he spoke of his time at Butler as "blessed enough of his life."

Norm was drafted into the U.S. Navy to serve as the mother of his children Judith, in 1956. They had three beautiful children together; Barbara, Shary, and James.

During this time Norm was drafted into the Pittsburgh Pirates to pitch. He was released after one year after an injury and Norm did not direct his passion towards coaching. New Haven High School, his alma mater, hired him to coach high school basketball which was the beginning of his legendary coaching career. Norm left New Haven High School in 1963 to coach at Monmouth College, IL. While there he coached basketball, football, and baseball. After three seasons he was offered the assistant coaching position under Coach Bob Knight in Bluffton, Indiana. When the college went to Division II in 1973, Norm was named head coach of the basketball program. In his first year he coach he led the Lobos to a 21-1 record.

The Lobos went on to win the NAIA National Basketball Tournament and several NAIA Basketball championships in 1974 and 1978, compiling a "Stormin' Norm" over $100.00 chamber gift card for each purchase.

Norm is survived by Judith, his wife of 60 years and their children; Shane, Gabe, Sharon, Billy, Dale, Julietta, Samantha and Christiansa. Norman Dale Ellenberger, age 83, died exactly where he wanted to be in his home in Waternest, MI, November 15, 2015. He spent his last years with his wife Judith and their family.

Norm is survived by Judith, his wife of 60 years and their children; Shane, Gabe, Sharon, Billy, Dale, Julietta, Samantha and Christiansa.

Norm spent his last years with his wife Judith and their family. He was very close to Lori's children Philip, Peter, Erin, and Ricki Ann. Kva, his chocolate lab is already missing him, as Norm would refer to her as "the brown dog." Norm is also survived by his children and grandchildren.

In 2012 Norm was honored by his legendary coach and his family.
