BRENDA WIELAND SAYS GOODBYE TO PCH

One day, 27 years ago, Brenda Wieland walked in to the Paulding County Hospital and applied for a job. It doesn’t seem that long ago, but looking back and realizing it was 1988, it has been a while. Recently, she met a guy from Napoleon. He said, “I do believe I owe this lady a dance.” It was Dean Von Deylen. They were just married on June 21, 2014. Now they live along the Auglaize River, enjoying the beauty of that part of the state, and of course, attending their annual weddings.

Remembering back to their high school days, “I graduated from Ottoville…you know, The Big Green.” She was in the class of 1976. Brenda still has family over that way and loves to coordinate events with them all.

Brenda attended Lima Tech (now Rhodes State) after high school and graduated with an associates degree. She then went on to work for the Lima Correction facility as a Lab Technician in the infirmary, just like in Shawshank Redemption. She has three children: Matt Lives in Columbus, Jen (Continued on Page 3)

- Don’t let your loved one fall. People who fall (or who nearly fall) can develop a fear of falling and change their behavior in ways that may actually increase their chance of falling again.
- Don’t ignore chronic pain. Pain can cause you to become less active, reduce and exercise, and some pain medications can interfere with balance and stability. Encourage your loved ones to consult their health care providers and discuss treatment options to reduce the risk of falling. Ask for a falls prevention consultation.
- Help your loved one re- main physically active. Any amount of exercise that reduces your risk of falling, anything from simply lifting your legs while watching TV, to walking, to light aerobic exercise programs. Focus on activities that build strength and flexibility.
- Promote good nutrition and hydration. A balanced diet promotes overall health and stability. A proper nutrition can reduce the risk of falling. Ask for a healthy eating consultation.
- Encourage appropri- ate use of assistive devices. Walkers, canes, folding step stools and other hand rails reaching and grabbing tools are helpful, but only if you are used properly.
- Include your loved one in decisions about changes to their home. There are many inexpensive changes that can significantly reduce the risk of falling, tripping and falling. THE MOST FAMOUS GROUNDHOG OF ALL

By: Staci Miller, Pulitzer SWCD, Education Specialist

February 2nd marked Groundhog Day, and the famous rodent meteorologist Punxsutawney Phil was captured on camera for the first time last Wednesday. The event, known as Groundhog Day, has its origins in the ancient Christian tradition of Candlemas Day, and is associated with the celebration of the return of spring.

Phil, the groundhog living in Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania, is considered the most famous groundhog in the world. According to legend, if Phil emerges from his burrow on February 2nd and sees his own shadow, the forecaster predicts six more weeks of winter. On the other hand, if he does not see his shadow, it means spring has arrived.

This year, Phil emerged from his burrow on February 2nd and did not see his shadow, predicting an early spring for the region.

STATEMENT FROM OHIO SECRETARY OF STATE JOHN HUSTED

Regarding the introduction of Senate Bill 26 by State Senator Larry Obhof (R-Medinah) that seeks to implement a 21% cut in business filing fees, which mirrors priority legislation (House Bill 3) introduced in the Ohio House last week, all of the following may be attributed to Ohio Secretary of State Jon Husted:

“I want to thank Senator Obhof for helping us cut the red tape,” Husted said. “This legislation will further bolster a business-friendly environment in Ohio.”

“Over the past four years the Secretary of State’s office has been focused on improving customer service, which has led to reduced business filing fees and increased revenue. Coupled with our outstanding customer service, this will result in a success dividend that we want to share with our customers, making it cheaper to do business in Ohio.”

“I am hopeful members of both houses will pass this proposal, which will further bolster Ohio’s appetite for entrepreneurship, leading to a start of a company.”

GROUNDPHOG PREDICTIONS

Groundhogs are one of the few animals which help them to be resistant to many germs and diseases that af-fet healthy animals. Groundhogs are one of the few animals that really hibernate. Hibernation is not just a deep sleep. It is actually a deep coma, where the body temperature drops to a few degrees below freezing, the heart barely beats, the blood scarcely flows, and breathing nearly stops. According to the Punxsutawney Groundhog Club, Groundhogs are usually born in mid-April or May, and by July they are able to go out on their own. The size of the litter is four to nine.

In the Christian religion, most have all tried to assuage and extinguish the versality of sin. Through the two drops fell at Kshipra in the river Saraswati. The other drops fell at Haridwar where there was a war between the two cities. The fount which offers release from the burden of sin and restores our relationship with God... Thus, we confess Jesus as Lord anytime, anywhere, and we will be saved! It makes one gasp in wonder at the overarching simplicity and compelling elegance of this very good news. This is why we read in scripture...Acts 4:12 (KJV).

No other name, no other god, no other spiritual or natural thing, nothing, no one else can save us from our sin. But Jesus is Lord. Pastor Rick Jones is presently serving on the staff of Deanship Area Youth for Christ for 36 years, first as a board-appointed Executive Director and now as Executive Director. Rick is currently a pastor of an area local church.

NEW DOCUMENTARY SPOTLIGHTS MACHO MAN IN THE CHURCH IN AMERICA

The documentary film, titled When God Left the Building, will be screened, Sunday, February 15, at the Paulding Church of the Nazarene, 210 Dooley Road in Paulding. The film is presented by Paulding Ministerial Association and will host a 20 minute discussion with the filmmaker.

This film reveals the deep rifts in the American church resulting from a departure from spiritual centrality. The film is sponsored by Paulding United Methodist Church and is donated by Paulding Ministerial Association.

This film was created by Thom and Joani Schlutz of Hands of Hope. The filmmakers, Tom and Joani Schulz, said: “The American church as we know it is dying. Within the history and spirit of the church is a dying away. We wondered why. And we wondered what’s next.”

According to Schlutz, the numbers are astounding. The country are in a state of decline. He said weekend church attendance has dropped to 20 percent of the population. This trend has reached in the closing of 4,000 churches and another 2,000 will close by the end of 2015. The filmmakers spent time at churches of various denominations (Christian church that saw attendance plunge from 900 to 40). “It was a clear picture of people washing up of societal spiritual, spiritual confusion and human conflict,” Schultz said.

The film also prominently features the unconventional work of church parishes in communities that are actively doing things differently and outside of the traditional church building. A preview of the film is available at WhenGodLeftTheBuilding.com. The film was produced by Group Productions, a Colorado media company.

Questions about the documentary may be directed to Rev. Derek Evans M.Div., S.T.M. at derek.evans@pmacvw.org, or Emerson referred to as HOT2emerson2@hotmail.com.

PAM TEBOW TO SPEAK AT THE NISWUGER PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Hands of Hope Pregnancy Services, in Paulding County, is excited to announce the preview screening of the film, The Night Before, on Wednesday, March 18. For more information about this event, visit the Hands of Hope website at napc4w.org, or by calling the box office at 419-233-1113.

Hands of Hope is a hand-up organization dedicated to helping expecting moms and babies. The team has helped more than 100 women in the Paulding area.

On Wednesday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m., the Niswugger Performing Arts Center in Van Wert, OH, will host a special preview of the film, The Night Before. The event will be sponsored by the Niswugger Performing Arts Center and will be held at the Niswugger Performing Arts Center. The event will be open to the public and is free of charge. The film will be shown at 7:30 p.m. and will include a discussion with the filmmakers.

The film, The Night Before, is a powerful documentary that explores the lives of expectant mothers and their families. It highlights the unique challenges faced by these families and the resources available to support them. The film aims to bring awareness to the importance of early intervention and support for expectant mothers and their families.

During its last celebration in 2015, the Kumbh Mela in India marked the 210 million people who were present. The event is one of the largest gatherings of people on the planet and attracts people from all over the world. It is a time of spiritual rejuvenation and a celebration of the unity of humanity.

Nature has few agents to clean up the planet. For example, consider the thousands of pounds of waste generated each day. There is no chemical or other known agent to clean up the planet. No one to turn to alcohol or some man-made traditions have been created to substitute for a cleansing agent for that which has only been one and only cure, the substitution of religion. In the belief of Jesus Christ for sin. For example, consider with the thousands of pounds of waste generated each day. There is no chemical or other known agent to clean up the planet. When God Left the Building, the sensational effort to save the lives of the unborn is brought to the screen. For example, consider the thousands of pounds of waste generated each day. SECRETARY OF STATE HUNTED TO PRESIDENT OBAMA: EXECUTIVE AC-
CTIONS ON IMMIGRATION INCREASE POTENTIAL FOR FURTHER REGULATORY ACTIONS & VOTING

In a recent letter to President Barack Obama, Ohio Secretary of State Jon Husted questioned whether the president's Immigration Accountability Executive Actions may be impacted by the integrity of elections. These executive actions increase the potential for non-citizens to illegally register and vote by granting more people with identification to register to vote.

In his letter, the chief elections official in a key swing state, made the biggest responsibility of their vote and hard to survive that only eligible voters cast their vote and state and local elections.

Secretary Husted said, “Due of Ohio’s voter registration over the past four years, the President’s executive actions have expanded a loophole and made it more difficult for non-citizen registra-ts to meet the primary standard for voting — U.S. citizenship.”

Under federal law, any person with a valid Social Security number or a driver’s license can register to vote, provided they attest to their identity. But executive active actions would expand the risk for illegal voter register-tion and voting by non-citizen citizens who have valid documented by the public wherever possible, and e ligible to vote.

Secretary Husted is asking that the 2012 Presidential provide state elections offices real-time access to a database of electronic databases of non-citizens who have valid and who may distinguish citizens and lawfully-present people.

In his letter to President Obama, Secretary Husted noted that the ongoing debate over voter fraud and voter access has bred significant by some who believe the public, eroding voter confidence. After issuing the read the report, the and suppression, and conducting a thorough investigation.

Secretary Husted has consistently maintained that while voter fraud is rare and he taken many steps to modernize Ohio’s elections system.

For example, following the 2012 Presidential election and through a data-sharing partnership with the Ohio secretaries of state, Secretary Husted determined that in Ohio, 291 non-citizens evoted in the 2012 election and he had actually cast ballots.
The 17 were referred for further investigation and criminal prosecution and the rest were sent letters to cancel their voting registration.

“We have been careful to uncover the facts, to be transparent and then to reasonable steps to improve our elections system and build voter confidence,” Secretary Husted said. “The President’s exective actions have the potential to roll back progress we have made in Ohio. It is my hope that will work with us to minimize their impact on the integrity of our elections.”

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES

PAULDING COUNTY

By: Stan Jordan

This is June 27, 1944. The weather has been flying for the last few weeks. We have a good foot-hold in France, but we are still in the foothills in this area. The Germans are protecting this town to the last man. We have made some progress on the highway and junction line. The English Field Marshall, Montgomery, has attempted to take this town a number of times, but has been pushed back each time. Both sides have lost a lot of men and equipment here.

The troops are going north to Belgium. The battlefield area is doing a little better, but the Germans are determined to keep this area as long as they can. We spent most of the morning around Garen and the St. Lo area. We got a couple tiger tanks and a few smaller ones. That is one way to supply trucks pretty hard. We used our cannon and machine guns and suppressed their fire. No ack-ack burst but small arms fire was thick, but we managed to knock some of them out of action.

Here in the barracks tonight, we discussed the dawn patrol. The Colonel got a package through the mail today. It was a good letter from Nelson from Grafton, Minn. That needed to be done. Lt. Nelson from Grafton, Minn. has written that he killed 49 men, a revenge binge. It has been written that he killed 49 men, a revenge binge. It has been said that the Confederates were a band of hoodlums, some dressed in the army clothes of the Confederates, and the others were killers, not soldiers.

They rounded up all the women and held them as hostages and made the men bring in all of their guns and arms of any type and put them in a wagon or they would kill the women. All of the businesses were robbed and the loot was loaded into wagons that belonged to the people. There were about 1,600 people living in Lawrence in that time. The men were helpless. The women and children were left behind with all the young boys and were passed in the streets. Around 200 men and women were killed that day. This was done right in front of the depot and then they burned the town.

Lawrence was considered a town of Northern sympathizers and Quantrill was supposed to be Confederate sympathizers, but they were merely a band of robbers, murderers and cut-throats, living off of the people. The town was burnt and robbed. Bloody Bill Anderson was a L.t. under Quantrill, but his men, and me, the women and children to hug them. We had packed up all the holes in the airplanes and had them ready for the dawn patrol to-morrow. Well, we talked and played a card game called, “All You Can Eat” and we tried to get the cheese and crackers away.

“Hearts” and all helped put the food on the table. It was a good meal. It was a good meal. It was a good meal. It was a good meal. It was a good meal. It was a good meal. It was a good meal. LOVING PETS BRINGS HEALTHY BENEFITS

The Nurturing Well by: Jill Starbuck

As I sit here and write this column, I think about the loss and grief we are all experiencing towards a few hours ago. A few hours prior to that, we took our beloved husky and went for a long walk. I can’t imagine many of us finding this irresistible, which will take our minds off any worries we may have, at least for a while. Animal innocence is one thing most people acknowledge and find comforting.

4. Teaches compassion.

Without our care and nurturing, our pets cannot thrive, or survive in many cases. We have to provide them with the nourishment, care and love. We have to take care of them, provide them proper care, and ensure their needs are met. All of these take a lot of time, (we demand), but it is worth it. You won't regret it.

FINALLY RAIDER WRESTLERS GMC CHAMPS!

If you were to enter the new Wayne Trace wrestling room and look around, there would be several wrestlers posing on the wall as the Blue Creek team had just made their way back after the second round. More pictures at westbendnews.net

The Lady Aces travelled to Wayne Trace on the below zero evening of Thursday, February 5th. The girls basketball game began the evening with the JV game won going to the home team. Wayne Trace’s Danae Mueller grabbed the varsity tip-off against Addison Bergman and so began the game against Hicksville.
Sometimes the play was a little sloppy for the Lady Aces and gave the Raiders an advantage in the first half. Over the past few games the Lady Raiders have really pulled together tightening their team play.
This has been the highest scoring game for Wayne Trace as they scored 73 total.
Erin Mohr and Shayna Temple were competing as point leaders throughout. Mohr scored 27 points: 12 from three point baskets and 12 from 2 point field goals. The other three from free throws and this was her second best game yet, one point short from the Fairview matchup. Temple, on the other hand, had her best game and could not match the speed of the Lady Raiders. They have been a good team and had a better record coming into this game as the home team.
For some reason the turnovers were just getting out of control. All four quarters, from beginning to end, fell below the competition.
Addison Bergman nailed 18 points for the Route 49 team. Most of her points, 12 to be exact, came from two points shots, 4 came from the foul line.

From beginning to end the game didn’t change much. The momentum stayed consistently on the home team. At 72-50, the game added a win the Raider-record. Wayne Trace is now 11-6. Hicksville is now 11-8.

Listening to the girls basketball game on the radio with Paulding and Delphos Jefferson competing I heard they were tied at 8. Walking in at halftime I realized the away team had pulled away from the Panthers at 15-24 and the second quarter was the un-doing of this game for the home team.

The third quarter posted a 9 points basket herself from the west corner of the court. Unfortunately, the momentum swung back though as the turnovers mounted for the Lady Panthers and the difference from halftime now grew by one.

The third quarter was the most for Paulding. The ladies were able to hold the Delphos offense in check and posted five points of their own. It was too tough to get to the game and the Wildcats won by six points 37-43.

LATTÁ, KAPITÁ LEKTOR LETTER EXPRESSING CONCERN WITH HHS' LIMITED CHOICE OF FARMSTEAD PROGRAMS

Congressman Bob Latta (R-OH) and Congressman Marcy Kaptur (D-OH) in a letter, which included other members of the Ohio delegations, urged Tom Vilsack, Secretary of Health and Human Services Secretary Sylvia Mathews for the following reasons:

- Concern about guidance released by CMS that describes the types of settings in which states may use Medicaid federal funds to pay for home and community service options, leading to a “farm-stead” or disability-specific farmstead community organization serving Mar- shall County with a legacy of service that dates back to 1844.

- Our state is home to sev- eral farmedest programs, like Bittersweet Farms, which is located in Ohio’s Fifth Congression- al District, said Latta. “These programs provide vocational and educational programs, as well as residential support for people with disabilities that enable these individ- uals to maximize their po- tential CMS guidance could inhibit the availability of these types of services for the target population who are the most vulnerable. I join my colleagues in urging the Secretary to remove rural, farmland or disability-specific settings from this list, so all Ohioans can continue to have a home in one of these farmedest programs.”

The Ohio Department of Transportation (DOT) has been in the news for a major road project. The Department has announced the completion of a $150 million project that involved reconstructing interchanges at Ohio 81, Ohio 117/309 and Fourth Street, which are critical to the traffic signal technology.

The safety upgrade of the project includes improvements to the interchange at Ohio 117 to the Allen County fairgrounds, which completed its first full year of operation in 2014. DOT officials said the addition of a new curb median, constructed during the project, improved the safety for both drivers and pedestrians, who used installed traffic signals and consolidated driveways. A similar project on the west side of Lima was completed in 2012, resulted in a 45 percent reduction in injury accidents. The project on the east side of Lima was completed in 2013, resulting in a 40 percent reduction in injury accidents.

Kirk Slusher, Ohio Department of Transportation Director, said, “The completion of the relocation and expansion of U.S. 30 in Hancock, Wyandot and Fostoria, and the U.S. 24 in Defiance, Paulding and Henry counties in 2009 and 2010, respectively, have enhanced the safety, mobility and economic development within these regions. However, the district has never rebuilt an interstate.”

In December, District 1 began the first of three projects to reconstruct the eastbound portion of Interstate 75. The project will reconstruct all interchanges and bridges in the city of Lima, and the south end of Interstate 75 north of Ohio 81 near Stewart Road to the Auglaize County line.

The reconstruction of Interstate 75 is not a typical project for the Ohio DOT, Slusher said, “The accomplishment of planning, designing and constructing this project was necessary to support the state’s economy and provide opportunities for the state’s residents. The project scope should not go unheralded,” he said.

The project began more than 10 years ago to look before the first and final phase of the $150 million project. The transportation officials are reflecting on what has been achieved so far and what is still needed to complete the project. The completion of Interstate 75 in Allen County and other significant projects continue to be a top priority.

Slusher noted some of the most significant milestones of the project to date:

- The five-mile reconstructed portion of the interchange at Ohio 81 in Defiance represented the first segment of the project to complete. This interchange was completed in 2012, and it provides a safer and more efficient intersection.
- The $11.6 million for the replacement of a culvert at a storm drain on Ohio 117 in Lima was completed in 1937, with a box culvert replacing the existing structure. The new culvert is measuring 18 feet wide by 10 feet high. The project bid amount was $711,000.
- The first year by contractors within the district totaled $93.9 million in construction expenditures. This amount included $85.8 million for replacing the bridge and highway pavement, and an additional $16.1 million for the replacement or rehabilitation of nine signalized intersections, including the reconstruction of seven signalized intersections. The project included a new curb median, constructed during the project, improved the safety for both drivers and pedestrians, who used installed traffic signals and consolidated driveways.
- The project on the west side of Lima was completed in 2012, resulted in a 45 percent reduction in injury accidents. The project on the east side of Lima was completed in 2013, resulting in a 40 percent reduction in injury accidents.

TROOPERS ASKING MOTORS TO #MOVEOVER

Last month, an Ohio State Highway Patrol trooper was struck by a vehicle as he was standing outside of his cruiser, responding to a crash on the side of I-475. Thankfully, he sustained non-life-threatening injuries, but he was knocked over a guardrail, fell into a steep ditch and had to be pulled up to safety by a rope.

Hundreds of people are killed or injured each year after pulling over to the side of a road and subsequently getting struck by another vehicle. The Ohio State Highway Patrol is asking motorists to help keep their fellow drivers safe by following Ohio’s Move Over law.

The law requires all drivers to move one lane over when passing any vehicle with flashing or rotating lights parked on the roadside. If moving over is not possible, drivers should slow down and proceed with caution.

For more information about the contest, the in-kind and monetary prizes that will be awarded, and the website to view the statistical data, visit http://www.statepatrol.ohio.gov/Move_Over_Bulletin_2015

Drewrys Brewing Company, a recently revived historic beer maker from South Bend, Indiana, plans to release a new commercial featuring Drewrys beer, which was previously marketed under the brand name of the company. The new commercial will be featured in the company’s new advertising campaign.

The campaign, which was launched in October 2014, features a beer commercial that showcases the company’s roots in the brewing industry. The commercial focuses on the story of Drewrys and its dedication to quality craftsmanship.
